Dear Sonny:

I have been planning to write you for some time, but have just gotten around to it. I wish we did not live so far apart, I would really like to see you and have a talk. There are several things I think we should discuss. I do hope if we do not see each other before, we will be able to get together at the league meeting.

In the meantime I want to ask you if you are not going to train in Orlando, will you send me the name and address of the party to contact to see about training there. Posey told me you all were thinking of training in Texas. I have not made any arrangements as yet. The time is really drawing near, and I should line some place up. I will appreciate it if you get an answer to me as soon as possible about this.

When do you plan to go to camp? I do not plan to go until April 1st.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Very Truly Yours
